FIRST ANNUAL Conference

METHODOLOGY IN/OF

THE HISTORY OF PHILOSOPHY

MAY 15-16, 2015

DEPAUL UNIVERSITY

CHICAGO, -IL

Keynote Speakers:

Christia Mercer, Columbia University

Daniel Dahlstrom, Boston University

The History of Philosophy Society is accepting full paper submissions for our first annual conference. Papers should address the theme of "Method," which can be taken in terms of the method(s) of particular philosophers, a philosopher's philosophy of method, or in terms of how one "does" the history of philosophy. The Papers should be submitted for blind review (with author's name on a separate title page). Papers should be no more than 40 minutes reading length.

Submissions should be sent no later than March 8, 2015. All papers should be sent as email attachment to Richard Lee (rlee17@depaul.edu).

The History of Philosophy Society (HOPS) was established to support and encourage scholarship on the history of philosophy from diverse perspectives. Welcoming the richness of multiple traditions, HOPS provides a forum for feminist, phenomenological, deconstructive, hermeneutic, Straussian, and Anglo-American interpretations of texts and philosophers from ancient Greece through the 19th Century.
