

HOPS: HISTORY OF PHILOSOPHY SOCIETY

May 15 & 16
Richardson Library
DePaul University
2350 N. Kenmore Ave.
Chicago, IL 60614

Friday, May 15

Library, Room 300

- 10:00-10:15 Coffee and Welcome
- 10:15-11:15 Shanè Ewegen (Trinity College), The Socratic Way
- 11:30-12:30 Anne-Marie Schultz (Baylor University), Searching for Socrates' Voice: Methods of Narrative Analysis in Plato's Theaetetus
- 12:30-2:00 Lunch

Library, Room 400

- 2:00-3:00 Sean Kirkland (DePaul University), Snubnosedness or In Remembrance of Aristotle and the Form of Matter
- 3:15-4:15 Brady Bowman (Pennsylvania State University), The Methodological Underpinnings of the Geometric Order: Self-Reflexivity, Performativity, and the Self-Consciousness of Rational Insight in Spinoza's Ethics
- 4:30-6:00 Keynote: Christia Mercer (Columbia University), Feeling the Way to Truth: Women, Reason, and the Development of Early Modern Philosophy

Saturday, May 16

Library, Room 400

- 10:00-10:15 Coffee
- 10:15-11:15 John Whipple (University of Illinois at Chicago), Leibniz and the Art of Exoteric Writing
- 11:30-12:30 Miren Boehm (University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee), Body and Mind: Natural Philosophy and Moral Philosophy in Hume's Treatise
- 12:30-2:00 Lunch
- 2:00-3:00 J. Colin McQuillan (St. Mary's University), Reading and Misreading Kant's Dreams of a Spirit Seer: A Case Study in the Historiography of Philosophy
- 3:15-4:15 Darin McGinnis (Wheeling Jesuit University), Nietzsche's Method of 'War': Interpretation and the Critique of Law
- 4:30-6:00 Keynote: Daniel Dahlstrom (Boston University), The History of Philosophy in Heidegger's Early Phenomenology

