5th Annual Meeting: Polemos/Eris

Villanova University; May 3 - 4, 2019

Call for Papers: Polemos/Eris

War, strife, violence, are central to philosophical thinking in various and diverse idioms. Heraclitus announces war as the logos of the cosmos. Socrates describes the violence done to individuals in the process of becoming enlightened. Hegel names the fundamental human relationship a duel. Polemos and Eris name pervasive and enduring features of human life.

Typically, HOPS submissions focus on a single author prior to the 20th Century, but essays treating multiple authors will be considered. Papers should be submitted for anonymous review (with author's name, affiliation, and contact information on a separate title page). Papers should be no more than 40 minutes reading length.

Keynote Speakers:

Drew Hyland, Trinity College

Christa Acampora, Emory University

The History of Philosophy Society was established to support and encourage scholarship on the history of philosophy from diverse perspectives. We welcome the richness of multiple approaches to the history of philosophy, as well as of various traditions (Africana, American, Asian, Caribbean, European, Latin American, etc.). HOPS provides a forum for various interpretive methods, including, but not limited to, analytical, deconstructive, feminist, hermeneutic, phenomenological, and pragmatist interpretations of texts and philosophers from antiquity through the 19th Century.

Please send submissions as an email attachment to historyofphilosophysociety@gmail.com no later than January 15, 2019.
